Michael Sotirhos is a Senior Managing Director at The Blackstone Group, one of the largest and most established Alternative Investment Management and Advisory firms in the world with over $100 billion of assets under management. He is based in New York and is responsible for Limited Partner Relations and Business Development. Prior to joining Blackstone, Mr. Sotirhos was a Partner at Atlantic Pacific Capital, Inc., a placement firm focused on raising Private Equity, Real Estate and Hedge Fund capital from institutional investors worldwide. While serving in the firm's London and Greenwich, CT offices, he was involved in all facets of the fund raising process from business development, deal origination and marketing strategy to investor coverage responsibilities in the United States, Canada and the Middle East. Prior to joining Atlantic Pacific, Mr. Sotirhos was in the Private Equity Placement Group at Merrill Lynch & Co. based in London where he raised capital for leading Private Equity and Real Estate managers from investors across Europe and the Middle East. Before beginning his career in finance, Mr. Sotirhos worked for McTaggart Shipping and Management Co., Ltd, a dry cargo chartering, commodity trading and ship management firm based in London and Piraeus. Mr. Sotirhos received a Bachelor of Arts and a Juris Doctor degrees from Georgetown University in Washington, DC.